Subex Recognized for Second Consecutive Year in 2025 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for AI in CSP Customer and Business Operations

Bengaluru, India – September 22, 2025 – Subex, a global leader in AI-driven telecom solutions, today announced its recognition for the second consecutive year in the 2025 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for AI in CSP Customer and Business Operations report.

This recognition reinforces Subex’s leadership in helping Communication Service Providers (CSPs) harness AI to drive operational excellence, elevate customer experience, and unlock new growth opportunities.

According to Gartner, “This Magic Quadrant helps communications service providers identify and evaluate AI vendors for their customer and business operations, guiding CIOs and technology leaders toward the right choices in a fast-evolving market.”

Subex believes this inclusion highlights its ability to accelerate AI, deliver measurable outcomes across fraud management, revenue assurance, and partner settlement leveraging decades of domain expertise to remain a trusted partner in CSPs’ AI transformation journey.

“Being recognized once again in the Gartner Magic Quadrant is a powerful validation of our innovation, domain depth, and customer-first approach,” said Nisha Dutt, MD & CEO, Subex. “Over the past year, we have doubled down on Generative and Agentic AI, co-innovating with our customers to address critical challenges. This recognition strengthens our commitment to helping telcos scale with confidence, mitigate risks proactively, and deliver exceptional digital experiences.”

As AI adoption accelerates, Subex remains committed to pushing the boundaries of telecom innovation enabling CSPs to automate intelligently, monetize effectively, and achieve sustainable growth.
